

- Installation

- Operation

In normal operation, the T-70 will connect the MAIN telephone line to the Telecommunication Device. When the Telecommunication Device goes OFF HOOK, the T-70 will place a BUSY across the other telephone lines. When the Telecommunication Device hangs up, the T-70 will remove the BUSY from the other lines and then it will wait for the next call. Whenever the Telecommunication Device is activated for an OUTGOING call, the T-70 will automatically connect the Telecommunication Device to the MAIN telephone line.

If you are using the T-70 during working hours, you should have our Service Center install the NON-INTERRUPT Modification (call for current pricing). If you do not choose this option, when the Telecommunication Device grabs the line, anyone who happens to be on one of the other lines will notice a dramatic drop in the audio level on their line.

To disable the T-70 during business hours, you can turn off the Telecommunication Device, or you can simply unplug the T-70 from power.

- Multi-Line Connection

To cover more than four lines, you just plug the MAIN cord from one T-70 into the female jack of the next T-70. You will notice that each additional T-70 (other than the first unit) only gives you three more lines; so, to cover up to thirteen telephone lines, you would need four T-70's.
